

Presented by:
Melissa McClain

In her role as Community Education Programs Coordinator, Melissa McClain facilitates a school-based mental health and wellness program at schools and community organizations throughout northeast Ohio. She is also a member of the RESPECT Dating Violence Prevention Youth Leadership Board at Children's. In addition, McClain participates in a variety of organizations related to her responsibilities, including the Ohio Sexual Violence Prevention Network, the Summit County Sexual Assault Coalition, the Summit County Suicide Coalition and the National Child Traumatic Stress Planning Team.

Trauma Informed Care: Intermediate Series

August 7, 2018: Incarcerating Families

This component discusses the impact of incarceration from arrest to visitation through release and re-entry to the family. Juvenile Incarceration In this session we discuss the prevalence of juvenile incarceration, the emotional implications, as well as the interruption to academic success for these children

August 8, 2018: An Introduction to Restorative Justice

This session introduces the concept of the school to prison pipeline, the historic effects of "no tolerance" policies, as well as an introduction in restorative justice and practices. Classroom Restorative Practices in Action This session provides practical tools that educators and other school staff can use to turn classroom discipline from just punitive to positive learning opportunities

9:00-3:00pm

Summit Educational Service Center
420 Washington Ave, Cuyahoga Falls

To register, please contact Maureen Cacioppo
(maureenc@sst8.org)

State Support
Team

